Colonel Mark Weiss went to Louisiana this morning.

David Rinsell came down from Colmesneil yesterday.

Congressman S. B. Cooper went to Woodville this morning.

Dr. D. L. Tackaberry came up from Sabine last evening.

O. M. Stone of Stone & Stone, druggists at Sabine Pass, spent the night here.

County Judge George C. O'Brien went to Woodville this morning on professional business.

Messrs. Jack Dies and A. Rich and Misses Callie and Clara Roberts came down from Kountze last night to attend the opera.

C. E. Slade, with Cameron & Co. at Nona, and sister, Miss Bertha Fox, came down from Nona last evening to see "The Prisoner of Zenda," returning this morning.

PROMPT PAYMENT.

The following receipt from the local lodge of United Workmen, through the local secretary, Charles J. Strack, two ($2,000) thousand dollars, payment in full for beneficiary No. 19,124, held by me in the above order on the life of my son, George L. Williams, who was drowned in the Galveston storm. (Signed) Carrie Magee.

Beaumont, Tex., November 22, 1900.

Mr. Williams was a fireman on the Gulf, Beaumont and Kansas City and was at Patton, visiting the Landrum family when the storm came up and was to have been one of the Misses Landrum on the 9th of September, following the storm.

The entire family and Mr. Williams were lost. The place where the body was entered could not be found and only one man could be found who testified that he had seen Mr. Williams' remains after the storm. The claim was never contested and was approved on the first meeting of the finance committee, after the application had been made, and shows a good record for squareness and fair dealing from the square.

The Ancient Order of United Workmen lost five members in the storm and all the claims have been settled promptly. Only about ten members of the order were put in distressed circumstances as a result of the catastrophe and $14,000 has been raised for their benefit, which will give each one over $1,000 to repair their homes. The Magnolia lodge, Beaumont, has 233 members.

THE NORMAL CONVENTION.

The Normal Convention at the Auditorium last evening was well patronized. Prof. Libbey first played a flute solo, which made a happy impression upon the audience.

The recitation of one of his own poems, entitled "The Atlantic Ocean Revisited," was recited according to the language of the ocean waves and was well received. The organ solo, his latest composition, to be published in the near future, was indeed fine. The Mocking Bird, with variations, was a happy hit and showed the Professor's mastery of the organ. The opening talk on the subject of music was a scientific effort and displayed the ability of Prof. Libbey as being an educated musician. The Ole Bull exercise on the violin proved to be a masterpiece fully illustrating the higher art of violin playing, which greatly pleased the audience.

The blackboard illustrations simply shows that Prof. Libbey is in a position to offer as he did in the audience last evening to meet American or foreign graduates on the subject of Methods of Music. All seemed to be greatly pleased with the entire program.

METHODIST CHURCH.

Dr. R. C. Armstrong, one of the most eminent ministers of Texas Methodism, is the guest of his kinsman Mr. George Smyth of this city, and will occupy the pulpit at the Methodist church on Sunday at both morning and evening services. Dr. Armstrong has during the past served the leading churches of Fort Worth, Weatherford, Waco and such other cities and is again stationed by his conference in Fort Worth. He has a host of warm friends in Beaumont who will be glad to meet him and we speak for him a most liberal hearing on Sunday.

"THE PRISONER OF ZENDA."

To one of the largest houses that has assembled in the Goodhue opera house this season "The Prisoner of Zenda" was played last night. Plays of such merit do not come here every day and Beaumonters in general did not propose to let the opportunity pass without taking advantage of it.

Vaughan Glaser as Rudolph V and Randolph Rensseldy did good work and was ably supported by Charles C. Brandt as Colonel Sapt. These two actors alone were an entertainment worth seeing in themselves.

Charlotte Tittel as Princess Flavia could have been better, but when an actress puts her whole being into the work as Miss Tittel did small shortcomings can be overlooked.

"The Prisoner of Zenda" was a four act play, preceded by a prologue of much merit, and the frequent prolonged encores expressed the satisfaction of the audience.

The sequel to "The Prisoner of Zenda," "Rupert Hentzau," will be here at an early date and we can safely forecast for it a heavy patronage.

Only one place for Feed.

FALL and WINTER STYLES.

Confidence

It is indeed a plant of slow growth. To win and to hold the good opinion of a much abused public is the coveted ambition of almost every honest merchant. It is not won in a day and a year. Our great success is the result of a hard, honest toiling and unswerving determination to get within the sacred name of public esteem, despite the cost and the temptations that beset our every endeavor. The policy that won us the imperishable position we hold today will ever remain in the future. Lower prices than others; better goods than others; placed at all cost; accounts opened; very liberal terms.

Oak cabinets, highly polished, has finely carved top, French plate mirrors, worth at least $35; special this week $25. Better grade, larger size, worth $60; this week $45. We have also in panel doors as low as $7.50. Very pretty Venetian Couch, several designs, excellent spring, handsome carved golden oak finish, actual value $25; this week $15.
